

LOVE IS...

The word, in the meaning of the language of the New Testament, is “agape.” This kind of love comes only from _____. This love is unconditional, sacrificial, committed and faithful and transcends circumstances and feelings. It has two dimensions.

One, love is something you _____, and two, love is something you _____. The point is, love is not a feeling, it’s choices and actions.

I Corinthians 13 is often referred to as “The Love Chapter.” The most remarkable description of love ever written is contained in these verses.

I Corinthians 13:4-8

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.
